

Ponencias y comunicaciones. 2007

IV GIN Conference 2007, Toronto.

- “Collaborative effort. Harmonizing guideline development in the spanish health system”.
- “Comparative study of the quality of the clinical practice guidelines (in iberoamerican countries)”.
- “Multifaceted intervention for the implementation of a CPG of osteoporosis improves the management in primary care”

IV Reunión Anual de la Health Technology Assessment International (HTAI), Barcelona.

- “Looking for suitable prioritization criteria to select the biomedical information sources”
- “Screening for diabetic retinopathy using teleophthalmology in the Basque Country”
- “Differences in the identification-prioritisation-evaluation process in the Spanish national health system could explain the differences in the diffusion of new and emerging health technologies”
- “Down screening prenatal screening”
- “Trained appraisers using the AGREE instrument obtained significant different scores to those that received only a training workshop”
- “Linking primary and specialist care through telemedicine. Assessment of telemedicine applications in the Basque Country”
- “Monitoring systems, an alternative to the introduction of new and emerging technologies with uncertain benefits. The case of apheresis for the treatment of ulcerative colitis”
- “FLC. New tool for critical appraisal”

XXVII Jornadas de Economía de la Salud, A Coruña

- “Análisis coste-efectividad de las alternativas del cribado prenatal del síndrome de Down”.