The project aims to establish an European network of stakeholders that wants to start a debate and continuous dialogue, through specific detailed studies and discussions, at international level, about future of Europe and new challenges that Europe faces and will face to overcome an era of profound transformation

Attached please find a summary of the project.

Eligible partners:

- Local public bodies
- Twinning committees
- Regional public bodies
- Federations/associations of local authorities
- Not-for-profit organization representing local public bodies
- Not-for-profit organizations working on the themes of the project

(List is not exhaustive, please view the draft project attached)

Partners are requested to have already (or request in due time) a PIC number (Participant Identification Code) on the European URF (Unique Registration Facility) on the Participant Portal.

Interested partners are requested to send out an expression of interest within 19th February 2016 at the contact indicated below. The E.O.I. should indicate partner short description, possible contribution to project activities and experiences in EU funded projects.
