

Personal data

Last Name: Larsen-Asp

Name: Mona

Current Position: Deputy Director. Equality and Anti-discrimination Ombud. Norway.

E-mail: mona.larsen-asp@ldo.no

Education

Norwegian School of Journalism. 1985/87.

Jeweller course, Elvebakken videregående skole 1981.

High School Diploma, Bredtvet videregående skole 1980.

Current profession

2006 Deputy Director at the Norwegian Equality and Anti-discrimination Ombud. Department of Documentation and Policy Promotion.

Previous professions

2003 - 2005 Deputy Director General for the Centre for Gender Equality.

2002 - 2003 Acting Director General for the Centre for Gender Equality.

1998 - 2002 Deputy Director General for the Centre for Gender Equality.

1990 The Gender Equality Council, executive officer since August 1990, later: Senior Executive Officer, Adviser and Deputy Director General.

The Gender Equality Council. Acting head of division. November 1994 to May 1996.

1989 The Gender Equality Council, made the pamphlet "Likelønn - et mål for 1990-årene" (about equal pay - an aim for the 1990's).

1988 Osloavisen, local newspaper for Oslo, allround journalist.

1987 Verdens Gang, the largest newspaper in Norway, allround journalist.

1981 - 1985 Akers Avis/Groruddalens Budstikke, local newspaper. Allround journalist.

Publications

1994 Editor of the anthology The Nordic countries – a paradise for women? Brit Fougner and Mona Larsen-Asp (editors) published by the Nordic Council and the Nordic Council of Ministers, Nord 1994:16.

1993 "Retten til å gå i egne tanker". A chapter in Brit Fougner's (editor): Dagens dame - fri og likestilt? (Women of today – free and equal?) Published by Aschehoug Forlag, Oslo.